

What Industry Leaders Are Saying

"The Pennsylvania RV & Camping Show is a great opportunity for dealers and other industry personnel to take a look at all the products that make the RV business so exciting. The facility at Hersheypark is truly outstanding. PRVCA works hard to make the event both productive and enjoyable for everyone." - Mike Molino, CAE, President of the Recreation Vehicle Dealers Association

"Trade days are Hershey's best kept secret. There's no waiting in line to talk to your manufacturer rep and you don't feel rushed like you do at other shows." Doug Gaeddert, Forest River

"By coming to the Pennsylvania RV and Camping Show you will see how tightly interwoven all of the different segments of the RV and camping industry are, and in order to grow we need to strengthen those partnerships." - Linda Profaizer, President and CEO of the National Association of RV Parks and Campgrounds

"I bring my sales team to the show to check out what our competition has to offer. I collect literature and use my notes all year to compare their products to ours. It's a valuable tool." - Gary Farnsworth, Farnsworth Camping Center

"Dealers and campground owners who are interested in learning more about Recreational Park Trailers should consider attending the PA RV & Camping Show during trade days as this show has traditionally been the largest display of Recreational Park Trailers with factory officials on hand to provide required information face to face. RPTIA also provides an information booth where association staff will be available to discuss (without charge) solutions to any specific issues of local resistance or regulations." - Bill Garpow, Executive Director of the Recreation Park Trailer Industry Association
